SECTION 4, beginning NOV. 5th, 1887.

58 Doom! an Atlantic Episode. By J. C. H. MCCARTHY. A powerful and thrilling story of life on an American liner. The end of a master of the sea, and all aboard, at Liverpool to the terrible landing at New York.

59 William Shakespeare. How, WHEN, WHY and WHAT HE WROTE. By H. A. TAYNE. There never has been compared into such brief space so much about the immortal Bard of Avon as in this work of the brilliant French author.

60 Rasselas; Prince of Abyssinia. By DR. SAMUEL JOHNSON. One of those immortal writings by a master mind which no one can afford not to read. It is a story of the human heart in its highest moods and noblest aspirations. Part I.

61 Money. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. Whoever has read Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" should read Bulwer's "Money." Under the story line you see the cause and hear the ring of the full play.

62 Peg Woffington. By Charles READE. This masterpiece by the great novelist is one of those exquisite romances with which great minds ornament their work. Part II.

63 Miss Toosey's Mission, and LADIE. Two of those rarely conceived and charmingly told stories of home and duty which refresh and inspire.

64 Paul and Virginia. By Bernardin de St. Pierre. This elegant household classic renews its freshness and beauty with every reading. It is the "story of the world" in a nutshell.

65 Cardinal Richelieu. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. The character of the wily, ambitious and brilliant French prime minister, as sketched by Bulwer in his immortal play of Cardinal Richelieu, is the one which has become historic.

66 Enoch Arden, and other gems. By ALFRED TENNYSON. For purity of style, genuine sweetness and tenderness, no poet has been so great as never surpassed him "Enoch Arden."

67 Romeo and Juliet. By WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE. An exquisite sketch of two foolish, lovers, who mingle tender sentiment with the ludicrous in a way to make everybody smile.

SECTION 5, beginning FEB. 4th, 1888.

71 The Coming Race, or New Utopia. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. A thrilling history of life among an ideal people found in the center of the earth, where the beauties are Arcadian, the forms perfect, the thought pure and noble to the last. A charming book: light, cheerful. Part II.

72 The Coming Race, Part I.

73 Bulldog and Butterfly. By CHARLES MURRAY. A really told story of a man character, yet not a bit overdrawn. Bulldog and Butterfly are all around us.

74 Shave; or Adventures in the Cave of Kob. By H. R. HAGGARD. This unique and popular story is a new departure in the field of fiction. Its production has carried the author into fame as a writer and artist. It ranks as one of the best of the kind, and is especially charming; its narrative imparts a pleasant thrill as it glides through wonderful scenes and startling events. Part IV.

75 Shave; or Adventures, etc. Part III.

76 Shave; or Adventures, etc. Part II.

77 Shave; or Adventures, etc. Part I.

78 Calderon the Courtier. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. One of the best of the great author's stories. Full of graphic situations, quick action, and rare information.

79 Stabbed in the Dark. By R. LYNN LINTON. A strong, stirring story of the Neapolitan days, by an author who invents ingenious plots and handles intricate situations like a master. Part II.

80 Stabbed in the Dark, Part I.

81 The Cricket in the Hearth. By CHARLES DICKENS. One of the sweetest and tenderest things ever written by Dickens. All love it for its beauty and pathos, and it will be preserved and read long after some of his more imaginative works have been forgotten.

82 The Lady of Lyons. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. This is the lady as seen in the dramatic play of the same name. It ranks as the prettiest picture of devotion and sincere expression of the "tender passion" ever placed on the stage.

83 Julia and Her Romeo. By DAVID CHRISTIE MURRAY. This author is always ingenious and ready. In "Julia and Her Romeo" he has written a charming story. The reader is held to the last in a spell which makes him regret the end of the story.

SECTION 6, beginning MAY 5th, 1888.

84 Loys, Lord Berresford. By J. C. H. MCCARTHY. This charming story is one of the best from the pen of the popular author. It is a story of a nobleman's life, and is full of situations calculated to illustrate high life. The work of a great author.

85 Clouds and Sunshine. By CHARLES READE. A happily told story of farm life, full of pretty rural pictures and pastoral sentiments.

86 The Haunted House. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. One of the great author's quaintest romances and most happily told stories.

87 John Milton; When, Why and What He Wrote. By H. A. TAYNE. This great work is full of surprises, and one can get a better idea of Milton, his times, studies and works from its pages, than from any other source.

88 Dr. Marigold. By CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' crispest and most amusing sketches of a quiet, unassuming character. Readable, laughable, and a sure antidote to care.

89 The Knightsbridge Mystery. By CHARLES READE. Concealed in the artist's name, till after reading through a forest of mysteries, the fearful close bursts on the reader like an Alpine avalanche or ocean water-spout.

90 Allan Quatermain. The latest and best novel from the pen of the popular H. RIDGER HARRIS. In this story of an African adventure, the author surpasses the glowing descriptive vision, startling situations and thrilling activity which made "Smy" such a revelation in fiction. Part IV.

91 Allan Quatermain, Part III.

92 Allan Quatermain, Part II.

93 Allan Quatermain, Part I.

94 The Trial of Pickwick. By CHARLES DICKENS. This is the first time the entire story of the gallant Pickwick's adventures with the unworldly lawyer, Mr. Barrell, has appeared in connected form. It abounds in north-provoking incidents, whose interest is always heightened by the wise comedies of the immortal Sam Weller.

95 Duty Unto Death, or Life and Work of Rev. George C. Haddock, Apostle of Prohibition in the Northwest. By his brother, J. H. Haddock. The murder of this great, earnest champion sent a thrill of horror through the North-western country; we work in this book a full review of the man and his career, and contains a graphic account of his assassination. Part II.

96 Duty Unto Death, etc. Part I.

SECURE A HOME IN THE LAND OF FLOWERS DINSMORE!
One of the growing towns of the South, is situated on both sides of the Savannah, Florida & Western Railroad, just twelve miles from Jacksonville, Fla. It is high, dry and level, and a successful horticultural and truck-growing section of the State. Dinsmore can be easily reached from Jacksonville by railroad, by water route, or by an hour and a half drive over an excellent plank and shell road.

Dinsmore is not one of the isolated spots that is only laid out on paper, but a thriving prosperous town that recommends itself to capitalist and laborer, to fathers and wives who are vigilant over their own interests and the welfare of their children, to those who are seeking homes and those who have capital to invest for speculation.

The land can be obtained at remarkably low figures and on terms suitable to the condition of every purchaser. At the present low figures a poor man can make regular payments on a valuable home with less than the aggregate of unnecessary expense or money actually thrown away. It is an investment that one cannot regret and through which you will realize many times the amount invested. The prices are for Front Buses Lots one acre, $65, $50, $35. Second choice, $25 $18. Third choice $15. Fourth choice $10. Fifth choice, $5. It must be remembered that these are acre lots.

We also have vegetable and truck farms laid out adjacent to Dinsmore, containing from five to sixteen acres each, which we offer for the benefit of those who wish to farm at $5 acre.

Our terms are one fourth cash and balance in one, two and three years.

The chain of title will be short and strong. It is from the State of Florida to the Railroad and from the Railroad to you.

Truck farming around Dinsmore would be at the door of two of the greatest markets in the South. Let every poor man if with but one dollar, commence to buy a lot in Dinsmore. The fare from Jacksonville and return is only twenty-five cents. Think of it. There are eight passenger trains per day and the round trip will only cost twenty-five cents. Trout creek, a large stream passes right through the vicinity, thus affording pure fresh water for stock, perfect drainage and abundance of fish.

TAKE WARNING NOW, and do not let this grand opportunity slip you. It is the very best chance you will have to secure a good piece of valuable property and such starting prices.

The merchants in Dinsmore are enjoying a good trade and the town is rapidly growing. Saw mills are convenient for securing timber to build, and laborers who desire work can get from a dollar and a half to two dollars per day.

For further information or plans and how to see Dinsmore, call on or address,
J. W. THOMPSON & CO.
Drawer 298 Jacksonville, Fla.
